"A Worship Commitment"

Isaiah 6:1-8

Derek Slack

Each Sunday millions of people gather for the purpose of worshipping God. They go to all kinds of churches...big churches, small churches, city churches, country churches. Some meet in multimillion-dollar sanctuaries; some meet in rented facilities.

All these millions of worshippers fall into two categories: Those who connect with God, and those who simply go through the motions.

The most important element in any worship service is the heart of the person attending the service. If your heart is bent toward God when you walk in the door, it will be full of God when you walk out. Today we are going to examine Isaiah 6 for a lesson in how to meet with God.

1. We must have the right attitude about _____

2. We must have the right attitude about _____

3. We should seek being made worthy to _____
