

"The Power of Far More Abundantly"

Ephesians 3:14-21

Derek Slack

We live in a culture of boredom. We do. We have more available to us in this day and age than ever in history, yet we are so bored.

If I were to ask you if you think prayer is important, every single one of you would say, "Absolutely, it's important. Yes, it's important." If I were to ask, "Hypothetically, in a 24-hour day, how many hours of your day are spent filled with prayer?"

Maybe we're bored because we're praying the same things over and over and over again in the same ways over and over again, toward the same things over and over again. In our time together this morning I would like to share three approaches that Paul lines up that will help us pray with a higher view of God and therefore in return pray with the upmost power.

1. Pray for _____

2. Pray for _____

3. Pray with _____
