

Jesus and Redemption Part 3

John 21:1-17

Derek Slack

So, the last few weeks we have looked at the stories of those who had come to the faith through some pretty incredible conversions. Both stories were of those who were outside of the faith and came to Christ.

What about those who encounter Jesus, who walk in the faith, and then stumble in that journey over and over? What about the believer in need of grace? Got anybody like that here today?

This morning, with the rest of our time together, we will answer two questions. What should we do when we are stuck in our mess? And then, what does Jesus do after we make our mess?

1. We should run to Him _____

2. He encounters us _____
