

“Repent Offender”

Psalm 51:1-6

Derek Slack

God, from the very beginning of the fall and throughout all of scripture, has called us to repentance and rest.

You can put whatever topic you want to put out there about the current nature of events surrounding us in our culture and you will find a lot of brokenness.

If we are going to build characteristics of true repentance in our lives and in the very place that repentance should be practiced the most, the church, then we must begin by doing what David did.

1. Lean into _____

2. Fully own your _____

3. Long for real _____
