

“Hardship and Discipline”

Hebrews 12:3-11

Derek Slack

As much as we would like to think it, believers are not exempt from hardship. What do you do when hardship strikes?

Today our goal will be centered around having a better understanding of hardships by looking at them from the angle of healthy Godly discipline.

We will look at the background surrounding hardship/discipline, answer the question of what Godly discipline points to, and what the design of discipline is intended to be for believers.

1. Hardship/Discipline and _____

2. Discipline is a _____

3. The design of discipline _____
