

"The Shocking Depth of Grace"

James 2:25-26

Derek Slack

Last week I asked the question, "How can you tell an apple tree is an apple tree? You see the apples hanging down from the limbs. The outside is the evidence."

This week we will be only covering a couple of verses, but it's a couple of verses that I think we should pause on and really dissect that nature of the story that surrounds those verses. We are going to be digging into the story of Rahab, a prostitute who ended up risking a lot for the sake of God.

As we look at the life of Rahab, we will find that she was the recipient of something scandalous, she more than feared God, and she risked everything for one reason.

1. Rahab was the beneficiary of _____

2. Rahab was _____

3. Rahab risked it all because of _____
